May Wine Feature

SALDO Chenin Blanc

Expected delicacy and softness in the mouthfeel are balanced by just enough acidity to refresh the palate and leave you wanting more. Tasting Notes: Pineapple and Honey Crisp Apples. Pairs well with seafood, chicken, and salads. $11 Glass; $35 Bottle

IRON + SAND Cabernet

Dense purple in color, this wine opens aromas of dark cherries, blackberry preserves and a dusting of coco powder and clove. On the entry, ripe, dark fruit flavors hit the palate before rounding out the earthy, rich chocolate covered cherries complemented by living acidity and fine tannins that lifts the wine and suggests a long life. The finish is long, supple, and mouthwatering. Pairs well with Prime Rib, Filet, and Burgers. $11 Glass; $35 Bottle

Thursday, May 2nd – University Club Tea

Chef O will be offering our May Tea on Thursday, May 2nd. Start with a cold crisp glass of champagne, followed by our specially blended loose leaf tea, freshly baked scones, classic tea sandwiches, and delicious pastries. Served in our elegantly appointed living room. $35.95++ Per Person, 24 Hour Cancellation Policy, Reservations are required for this event.

Tuesday, May 14th – Book Club

Join us each month for our Lunchtime Book Club with Barb McDonald, all are welcome. This month they will be meeting on Tuesday, May 14th. This month the book is The Wagner by David Grann.

On January 28, 1742, a ramshackle vessel of patched-together wood and cloth washed up on the coast of Brazil. Inside were thirty emaciated men, barely alive, and they had an extraordinary tale to tell. They were survivors of His Majesty's Ship the Wager, a British vessel that had left England in 1740 on a secret mission during an imperial war with Spain. While the Wager had been chasing a Spanish treasure-filled galleon known as "the prize of all the oceans," it had wrecked on a desolate island off the coast of Patagonia. The men, after being marooned for months and facing starvation, built the flimsy craft and sailed for more than a hundred days, traversing nearly 3,000 miles of storm-wracked seas. They were greeted as heroes.

But then ... six months later, another, even more decrepit craft landed on the coast of Chile. This boat contained just three castaways, and they told a very different story. The thirty sailors who landed in Brazil were not heroes – they were mutineers. The first group responded with countercharges of their own, of a tyrannical and murderous senior officer and his henchmen. It became clear that while stranded on the island the crew had fallen into anarchy, with warring factions fighting for dominion over the barren wilderness. As accusations of treachery and murder flew, the Admiralty convened a court martial to determine who was telling the truth. The stakes were life-and-death—for whomever the court found guilty could hang.

The Wager is a grand tale of human behavior at the extremes told by one of our greatest nonfiction writers. Grann's recreation of the hidden world on a British warship rivals the work of Patrick O'Brian, his portrayal of the castaways' desperate straits stands up to the classics of survival writing such as The Endurance, and his account of the court martial has the savvy of a Scott Turow thriller. As always with Grann's work, the incredible twists of the narrative hold the reader spellbound.
